NOTIFICATION BY THE SHAHUPURI FORWARD EXCHANGE LIMITED, KOLHAPUR

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, under sub-sections (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952) read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Notification No. 1162 dated the 4th May, 1960, has been obtained on 24th July, 1971, to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Shahupuri Forward Exchange Ltd., Kolhapur, the same having been previously placed on the Notice Board of the Exchange, pursuant to Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENT

1. For Bye-law 133(a) and (c) the following shall be substituted, viz. :—

"133 (a) At the time of examination under the Bye-laws 141 and 173, the buyer shall weigh five lumps per delivery order and taking into account average weight of these five lumps ascertain whether the goods are sufficient to cover the quantity of the delivery order. If by following this method it is found that the weight of the goods offered for delivery is less than 49 quintals per delivery order such delivery order may be rejected on the ground of insufficient goods. However, if the goods offered by seller against the delivery order are in excess of 50 quintals that order shall not be rejected by the buyer on that ground. In case the buyer does not exercise the right of ascertaining the quantity of the goods as noted above, he shall not be entitled to reject the delivery on this ground subsequently.

- (c) On the officer being satisfied that the seller has no goods or insufficient goods to tender against the delivery order in question, he will give a certificate to the buyer to that effect and in that case the seller shall pay to or receive from the buyer the difference between the rate of the delivery order and the closing rate of the hedge contract on that day of examination and if this day be the due date, then at the due date rate and if this day be after the due date, then at the spot rate of the day fixed by the Exchange. But the seller shall always be liable to pay to the buyer a penalty of Rs. 6/- per quintal."
- 2. (i) Bye-law 149(a) shall be renumbered as Bye-law 149 and in line two thereof the words "and August" shall be added between the words "May" and "delivery" and the word "and" appearing after "February" shall be deleted.
- (ii) Bye-law 149(b) shall be deleted.

3. Bye-law 150, 166 A(a) and (b) shall be deleted.

4. For Bye-law 181 the following shall be substituted :—

"Subject to Bye-law 133, goods against the delivery order shall be taken and given in full provided, however, for any shortage or excess of goods delivered, difference shall be paid or received by the seller or the buyer at the closing rate of the hedge contract on the day when such delivery was effected and the rate of the delivery order. If this date be the due date or after the due date, the difference shall be paid or received by the seller or the buyer between the rate of the delivery order and the due date rate or the spot rate of the day fixed by the Exchange whichever is applicable."

5. For Bye-law 284(a), (b), (c) and (k) the following shall be substituted :—

- "284 (a) The basis of Gur Hedge Contract shall be gur of average quality (Red Hard) produced out of the crop of the year, and purchased in Kolhapur Market Yard in open auction sale and every gur lump weighing 28 to 32 kgs.
- (b) The quantities tenderable against gur hedge contract shall be as under :
 - (i) Green Hard,
 - (ii) Kesari Hard,
 - (iii) White-Green Hard, and
 - (iv) Yellow Hard.

Usually gur of only one quality may be allowed for delivery against every single unit of delivery order; however, tender of mixed gur shall be permissible only subject to the conditions that (a) such a tender shall not contain more than three different tenderable varieties and (b) such a tender shall be treated as belonging to the lowest varieties contained therein for the purpose of "on and off" allowance as may be fixed by the Board in accordance with the provisions of Bye-law 284(f).

- (c) The quality can be said to be hard when lump under inspection, if stroked by a finger of hand or any hard substance produces the hard sound or sound indicating hardness and which is not soft.
- (k) Rates quoted shall always be deemed to refer to the basis quality i.e., Red Hard."

6. In Bye-law 284(m), the word "Shravan i.e." appearing in the third line shall be deleted.

7. (i) In Bye-law 285(a) the words "and May deliveries" in the first line shall be deleted and in its place the word "delivery" shall be added.

(ii) Bye-law 285(b) shall be renumbered as 285(c) and in clause (ii) in line three thereof the words "up to one eighth part of bottom/or top area each of such lump" shall be substituted by the words "such spot may be either on bottom or top area of such lump."

(iii) After Bye-law 285(a) the following shall be added as Bye-law 285(b) :—

"285(b) In respect of goods tendered against the May delivery contract :—

- (i) Not less than 85% of the lumps tendered shall be without any moisturous spot on the hessian cloth in which the same are packed,
- (ii) Not more than 15% of the lumps including the pressed lumps due to godown stacking tendered shall be with moisturous spot on the hessian cloth, in which the said lumps are packed. Such spot may be either on bottom or top area of such lump."

8. After Bye-law 287B the following new Bye-law 288 shall be added :—

288. The provisions of Bye-laws 133(a), (c), 149(a), (b), 150, 166 A(a) and (b), 181, 284(a), (b), (c), (k), (m) and 285(a), (b) as it stood immediately before 24th July 1971 shall be applicable for August 1971 delivery of gur and the provisions as amended on the aforesaid date shall be applicable to the February 1972 and subsequent deliveries of gur.
